

Kudo International Seminar in Vietnam

Vietnam seminar was a resounding success.

We welcomed 100 participants from Vietnam, Indonesia, Sri Lanka, Singapore, Korea, China, Hong Kong, Pakistan, and beyond for 3 days.

Supported by the Department of Culture, Sports, and Tourism of Ho Chi Minh City, and led by Grandmaster Osada Kenichi Sensei and Nakamura Tomohiro Sensei from Japan.

The intensive training sessions provided invaluable insights into Kudo techniques and philosophy. We all were truly honored and grateful to receive such a valuable education from these two great teachers.

Referee training for representatives from all participating countries, focusing on enhancing the standards of Kudo officiating. This training session marks a crucial step in the quality of Kudo referees and preparing for more fair and professional tournaments in Asia.

Belt Promotion test, we congratulate all the candidates who passed the test and express our deep gratitude for the enthusiastic participation and support from the international representatives. We the Vietnam branch have been preparing and waiting for this opportunity for many years.

At the end of the day, 7 Vietnamese instructors earned their black belts. This is a significant milestone and a source of immense pride, affirming the remarkable growth of Kudo in Vietnam. This marks a momentous achievement for Kudo in Vietnam and across Southeast Asia.

This seminar built a strong foundation of unity and determination in Asia, the Kudo community is set to grow stronger and more connected across borders.

Kudo Vietnam branch chief Neo Dang